

PRAYER TIP: SCHEDULE A PRAYER TIME

Make an appointment to meet with God just like any other appointment. If it is not on your schedule, it will tend to be put off easily.

Just as we look at our daily calendar to schedule social and business appointments, to arrange time to exercise, and to determine when to tune in to our favorite television program, we may also schedule a time for prayer.

Prayer needs to be marked "urgent" or "priority" when planning a daily schedule. This will ensure success in making prayer a daily habit in spite of all the other activities of the day.

For a "prayer appointment", one needs to begin with determining how much time to schedule. Be reasonable, ten minutes might be a good start.

You may need help at first in resetting priorities to include a daily prayer time. Understanding the value of prayer can give you the motivation to pray.

"If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you." John 15:7

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God" Philipians 4:6
