

Dear Junior Daughters of the King,

This year we are offering our first ever DOT DOK Transition Retreat where we will be hosting a small group of high school age JDOK at a lakeside cabin at Camp Allen. It is going to be a great weekend with opportunities to rest, rejuvenate, and grow with God. Registration is limited to ten young women and will remain open until Friday January 27, 2023.

Sincerely, Adelle Muller-McKinstry and Vicki Terrell

February 3-5th, 2023

Lakeside cabin at Camp Allen

What is the JDOK TRANSITION WEEKEND? The JDOK Transition Weekend is a small group weekend retreat which will focus on Christian community, active prayer, practical service, and sharing faith.

Who can attend the JDOK Transition Weekend? Junior Daughters who are in high school or other interested young women in 9th-12th grade.

When is the JDOK Transition Weekend? Friday February 3 at 7 PM until Sunday February 5 at 10 AM.

Where will the retreat happen? A lakeside cabin at Camp Allen.

How much does it cost? $30

When is the deadline to register? January 27, 2023 or until it fills up. Our small group will include 5-10 young women.

Wait, I am confused. I thought the JDOK retreat was January 13-15, 2023 at Campsite #3. The annual JDOK Retreat for all JDOK girls is January 13-15, 2023. This is a small group (first 10 girls to register) retreat for girls in high school who are interested in taking their faith to the next level.
