

Diocese of Texas Daughters of the King Fall Assembly
Sep 13-14, 2024

Saturday Morning our speaker will be Dr. Gayle Timberlake and she will share with us "How to get your Joy Back". Dr. Timberlake is a biblical scholar, university professor, and cultural ethnographer that leads tours in Israel and the Middle East. She has a PHD in New Testament Studies with a focus on first-century Christianity, specifically the customs and traditions of the earliest Church. Dr. Gayle is the CEO and Founder of Simka Foundation, a ministry dedicated to teaching timeless traditions that lead to joy and rest.

We are so excited that Rachel Norris will be sharing with us at the Fall Assembly - Sept. 13-14, 2024 at Camp Allen also this year. Make plans to join us!!

Rachel Raborn Norris was born in Hong Kong to missionary parents. She stayed there until finishing High School in 1979. She and her husband Bob Norris own Joy pottery in Bryan, Texas which is built on the land her mother grew up on. Joy Pottery is a studio where she works, teaches and sells pottery.

Rachel has been making pottery ever since she changed her college major to clay in 1982. She has her MFA in Ceramics from UNT in Denton. Rachel and Bob have two children, David and Anna. Rachel has been sharing her testimony with her potter's wheel since 1992.
